

March 2022

Dear Parent/Guardian

Provision for children and young people with additional learning needs (ALN)

We wrote to you previously reading Cardiff Council public consultations on proposed changes to provide high quality primary and secondary specialist school places for children and young people with Additional Learning Needs.

At its meeting on 10 March 2022, the Council Cabinet considered two reports on the consultations.

The reports informed Cabinet of the responses received during the consultations, the issues raised, the Council's response to these and recommendations on the way forward.

Emotional Health and Wellbeing provision

The Cabinet authorised officers to proceed to publish statutory notices to:

- increase the capacity of The Court Special School from 42 to 72 places. The school would transfer to new build accommodation across two sites at Fairwater Primary School and the current St Mellons, CiW Primary School site in Llanrumney with 36 pupils on each site from September 2025
- establish a 20-place Specialist Resource Base for emotional health and wellbeing at Cardiff West Community High School from September 2022
- establish a 20-place Specialist Resource Base for emotional health and wellbeing at Eastern High from September 2023

The Cabinet also agreed that the proposal to increase the capacity of Greenhill School and to transfer the school to new build accommodation across two sites at the Ty Glas in Llanishen and the Dutch Garden Centre site with 80 places on each site from September 2025 not be progressed. It was noted that officers will bring a further report to Cabinet for consideration, setting out details of revised proposals for the provision of secondary English-medium and Welsh-medium education health and wellbeing special school places.

Complex Learning Needs and Autism Spectrum Condition provision
